

SEMINAR, 9-10 October, Norwegian Police University College

Monday, 9 October

9.00- 10.45 Organized and transnational crime

9.00 – 9.10: Welcome, Heidi Bjelland Fischer and Johanne Yttri Dahl, Norwegian Police University College

9.10 – 9.25: Welcome from PHS, Haavard Reksten, Head of Research department, PHS

9.30 – 10.00: Transnational policing and intelligence: Negotiations of risks. Helene Oppen Gundhus, University of Oslo/ Norwegian Police University College

10.00 – 10.45: Organized crime and transnational crime, Paul Larsson, Norwegian Police University College

10.45 – 11.00: Break

11.00 – 12.00: Human trafficking and smuggling in Norway

11.00 – 11.30: THB and smuggling in Norway, Helene Forsland Widerberg, National Criminal Investigation Service (NCIS).

11.30 – 12.00: Organization of THB and smuggling responses in Norway, Sten Kjekslis, National Criminal Investigation Service (NCIS).

12.00 – 13.00: Lunch

13.00 – 14.15: The Bulgarian and Norwegian situation

13.00 -13.45: Challenges in policing human trafficking, Rune Sjøfting, Norwegian Police University College

13.45 - 14.00: Irregular migration: trends, modus operandi and functions of the GDBP, Dobromir Ivanov and Velina Dobrova, General Directorate Border Police

14.00 – 14.15: Processes and tendencies observed in irregular migration in Bulgaria, Dimitar Kangalzhiev and Ivan Stamboliyski, General Directorate National Police

14.15 – 14.30: Break

14.30 -15.30 The Bulgarian situation (corruption, organised crime, human smuggling and human trafficking)

14.30 – 14.45: The state of affairs on human smuggling in Bulgaria, Lyubomir Hristov, General Directorate Combatting Organised Crime

14.45 – 15.00: Tendencies in criminality related to the migrant crisis, Pavlin Kodzhahristov and Krasimira Vasileva, Directorate Internal Security

15.00 – 15.15: The state of affairs on human trafficking in Bulgaria, Lyubomir Hristov, General Directorate Combatting Organised Crime

15.15 – 15.30: Corruption and human trafficking in Bulgaria: significance, actors and mechanisms, Nadya Stoyanova, Center for the Study of Democracy

15.30 – 15.45: Break

15.45 – 16.15: Exchange of competence

Paul Larsson facilitates exchange of skills and competence

18.30: Dinner (PHS)

Tuesday, 10 October

9.00 – 9.45: Guided tour of the Police College, given by the international contact at the college, Torkje Stokland, Norwegian Police University College

With the financial support of the Norwegian Financial Mechanism, 2009 – 2014.

