

Policy Workshop

Low-carbon mobility and its challenges to energy transition policies in Europe

28 June 2019

Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung Brussels, European Union
Rue du Luxembourg, 47-51, 1050 Brussels, Belgium

Agenda

- 09:30 Registration
- 10:00 Opening and welcome remarks
- Ruslan Stefanov, Director, Economic Program, Center for the Study of Democracy
 - Radostina Primova, Head of Climate & Energy Programme, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung European Union
- 10:10 Public policies and business development towards sustainable low-carbon mobility in Europe
- Radostina Primova, Head of Climate & Energy Programme, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung Brussels European Union
Internal and external challenges for the decarbonisation of EU road transport sector and a stronger European rail network
 - Todor Galev, Senior Analyst, Center for the Study of Democracy
Governance barriers regarding electrification of vehicles in nine European countries
 - Stefan Apostolov, Member of the Management Board, Electric Vehicles Industrial Cluster
Electric Mobility and Energy Transition in Bulgaria
- Q&A and Roundtable discussion
Moderator: Ruslan Stefanov, Director, Economic Program, Center for the Study of Democracy
- 11:20 Coffee break
- 11:40 Towards a climate-friendly EU transport policy – recommendations for enhancing the synergy between EU energy, climate, transport and R&D policy objectives and the major challenges ahead
- Julia Poliscanova, Manager Clean Vehicles & Emobility, Transport and Environment
How to integrate electric cars into EU grids effectively?
 - Stijn Van Hummelen, Managing Director, Cambridge Econometrics - Belgium
Economic impacts of a transition to e-Mobility in the EU
- Q&A and Roundtable discussion
Moderator: Todor Galev, Senior Analyst, Center for the Study of Democracy
- 12:20 Brainstorming session - rating the most relevant policy recommendations (using Sli.do)
Wrap-up and closing remarks
- 12:45 Networking & Cocktail lunch