

First specialised regional training for R2G4P members:

An overview of procurement integrity and introduction to opentender.eu

07 July 2021, Zoom

Agenda

- 10:00 CET Welcoming Remarks and Introduction
Daniela Mineva, Senior Analyst, Economic Program, Center for Study of Democracy
- 10:05 CET Conceptual background of procurement integrity
Dr. Mihály Fazekas, Director, Government Transparency Institute, Hungary
- 11:15 CET Coffee Break
- 11:30 CET Procurement data: sources, possible errors, and examples of data availability
Péter Horn, Analyst, Government Transparency Institute, Hungary
- 12:30 CET Lunch Break
- 13:30 CET Introduction to procurement integrity indicators
Bence Tóth, Senior analyst, Government Transparency Institute, Hungary
- 14:45 CET Coffee Break
- 15:00 CET Applications: Real life examples and an introduction to opentender.eu
Ágnes Czibik, Managing director, Government Transparency Institute, Hungary
- Moderator: Daniela Mineva, Senior Analyst, Economic Program, Center for Study of Democracy
- 16:30 CET Closing Remarks

Implemented by:

The R2G4P project, coordinated by the Center for the Study of Democracy, Bulgaria benefits from a € 1.5 million grant from Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway through the EEA and Norway Grants Fund for Regional Cooperation. The aim of the project is to implement shared anti-corruption and good governance solutions in Southeast Europe through innovative practices and public-private partnerships.