CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ........................................................................................................... 9

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY ........................................................................................................ 11

INTRODUCTION .................................................................................................................... 27

CHAPTER I. GOOD PRACTICES IN THE FIELD OF EDUCATIONAL INTEGRATION OF REFUGEE AND ASYLUM-SEEKING CHILDREN .................................................................................. 33

2. Country reports .................................................................................................................. 77
   2.1. Austria .................................................................................................................... 77
   2.2. Bulgaria............................................................................................................... 108
   2.3. Italy ................................................................................................................... 136
   2.4. Slovenia .............................................................................................................. 155
   2.5. Sweden ............................................................................................................... 182
   2.6. Estonia ............................................................................................................... 215
   2.7. Greece ................................................................................................................. 233
   2.8. Netherlands ........................................................................................................... 250
   2.9. Poland .................................................................................................................. 279
   2.10. United Kingdom ................................................................................................. 305

CHAPTER II. GOOD PRACTICES FOR THE INTEGRATION OF REFUGEE AND ASYLUM-SEEKING CHILDREN AT SCHOOL: EVALUATION AND SOCIAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT ........................................................................... 331

1. Comparative report: Promoting best practices in the area of educational integration of refugee and asylum-seeking children – the role of evaluations and social impact assessments......................................................... 333

2. Selected evaluation and social impact assessment reports ....................................................... 347
   2.1. Evaluation of the SPRAR project “Terra d’Asilo” in Italy ...................................................... 347
   2.2. Social impact assessment of the potential implementation of the Italian SPRAR project “Terra d’Asilo” in Bulgaria .................................................................................................................. 366

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS .................................................................................................. 387
APPENDIX 1. METHODOLOGICAL GUIDELINES
FOR BEST PRACTICES IDENTIFICATION
AND PREPARATION OF COUNTRY REPORTS ..........395

APPENDIX 2. GENERAL METHODOLOGICAL GUIDELINES
FOR BEST PRACTICES EVALUATION
AND SOCIAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT .......................415
LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1. Numbers of first-instance decisions on asylum claims in 2010 ................................................................. 39
Figure 2. Types of integration policies .................................................. 43
Figure 3. Decentralisation of education – risks and opportunities .... 52
Figure 4. Education and empowerment ............................................... 53
Figure 5. The concept of the four A’s – availability, accessibility, acceptability and adaptability .................................. 56
Figure 6. Social and intercultural competences and acculturation ...... 63
Figure 7. Sensitisation of public opinion to refugee issues ............... 66
Figure 8. Models and policies of educational integration ................. 71
Figure 9. Factors of the successful educational integration ............... 73
Figure 10. Number of refugee applicants for the period 1.1. 1993 – 31.10. 2010 ............................................................. 109
Figure 11. Top 10 Countries of origin of asylum seekers, 1993 – October 2010 ................................................................. 111
Figure 12. Slovenia’s foreign population by citizenship and gender, 1 January 2010 ............................................................ 177
Figure 13. Asylum application processing procedures in Estonia ...... 217
Figure 14. Undocumented migrant flows into EU countries ............. 249
Figure 15. Asylum applications – Netherlands ................................ 254
Figure 16. Population of asylum seeking children, 1995 – 2010 ........ 255
Figure 17. Total number of refugees in the Netherlands .................. 257
Figure 18. Inflow of unaccompanied minor asylum seekers, 2000 – 2010 ..................................................................... 267
Figure 19. Poland’s geopolitical situation ....................................... 280
Figure 20. Centres for foreigners in Poland ...................................... 283
Figure 21. The process for obtaining refugee status in Poland ......... 287
Figure 22. Major refugee-hosting countries, end of 2009 ............... 307
Figure 23. Distribution of immigrants in the UK .............................. 311
Figure 24. The procedure for admission into SPRAR projects ........... 351
Figure 25. The Terra d’Asilo logic model ....................................... 352
Figure 26. Structure of activities ....................................................... 360
Figure 27. Simplified logic model ...................................................... 423
LIST OF TABLES

Table 1. Locations where the project was implemented and corresponding activities .................................................. 14
Table 2. Number of refugees, people in refugee-like situation, asylum seekers and estimated number of refugee and asylum seeking children ................................................................. 15
Table 3. National contexts in comparison: centralised versus decentralised approaches ........................................... 22
Table 4. First-instance decisions on (non-EU27) asylum applications, 2010 .......................................................... 36
Table 5. Official data on asylum applications and decisions in Austria, 1999 – 2009 .......................................................... 79
Table 6. Unaccompanied asylum seeking children in Austria, 01.01.1993 – 30.11.2010 .............................................. 111
Table 7. Total of permits granted to both – adults and children and the share of children ............................................ 112
Table 8. Stages of education in Austrian schools ........................................................................................................... 90
Table 9. Terminated procedures, 1993 – 31 October 2010 .............................................................................................. 110
Table 10. Refugee waves in Bulgaria, 1993 – 31 October 2010 ......................................................................................... 110
Table 11. Refugee applicants in Bulgaria by year and the share of children ................................................................. 111
Table 12. Unaccompanied/separated children, 01.01.1993 – 30.11.2010 ................................................................. 112
Table 13. Unaccompanied/separated children by country of origin, 01.01.1993 – 30.11.2010 ............................................. 113
Table 14. Structure of the public school system in Bulgaria ......................................................................................... 118
Table 15. Asylum applications, Italy, 2005 – 2009 ............................................................................................................. 138
Table 16. Largest groups of asylum applicants to Italy, 2004 – 2009 ............................................................................... 139
Table 17. Legal framework ................................................................................................................................................. 140
Table 18. System of protection. Beneficiaries’ main characteristics, 2009 ................................................................. 143
Table 19. Applicants for international protection by citizenship, 2009 ................................................................. 177
Table 20. Applicants for international protection by citizenship and gender, 2010 ............................................................. 178
Table 21. Applicants for international protection by gender, 2009 ..................................................................................... 179
Table 22. Applicants for international protection by age, 2009 ......................................................................................... 179
Table 23. Children and minors applicants for international protection by age and gender, 2009 ........................................ 180
Table 24. School integration of persons with international protection by age, gender and citizenship, situation on 28 February 2011 .................................................................................... 180
Table 25. Primary school integration of persons with international protection by gender and citizenship, school year 2010/2011 ......................................................................................... 181
Table 26. Secondary school integration of persons with international protection by age, gender and citizenship, school year 2010/2011

Table 27. Five main citizenships of asylum applicants in the Nordic countries, 2010

Table 28. Citizenship and asylum decisions, 2010

Table 29. Reasons for granting asylum and residence permits

Table 30. Grounds for granted asylum decisions: children and adults, 2010

Table 31. Positive asylum decisions for unaccompanied children

Table 32. Asylum decisions and handling time of unaccompanied minors, 2010

Table 33. Pupils in pre-school class, pupils whose mother tongue is other than Swedish, and pupils who receive mother tongue tuition, academic years 2002/03 – 2010/11

Table 34. Pupils in compulsory school participating in mother tongue instruction, school year 2010/2011. Top ten of languages

Table 35. Overall number of students and proportion of pupils failing to pass in the core subjects of English, Mathematics and Swedish/Swedish as a second language in grade, divided into pupils with a Swedish background and pupils with a foreign background. Academic year 2009/2010

Table 36. Asylum dynamics, 1997 – 2009

Table 37. Asylum applications lodged in Greece, 2005 – 2010

Table 38. Main countries of origin of asylum applicants in Greece, 2005 – 2010

Table 39. Population at 01.01.2010

Table 40. First asylum applications by main countries of origin in 2009

Table 41. Stages of education in the Netherlands

Table 42. Number of refugee children and children applying for refugee status in Polish schools, 30.09.2010

Table 43. Applicants granted refugee status, 2010

Table 44. Applicants granted subsidiary protection, 2010

Table 45. Applicants granted tolerated stay status, 2010

Table 46. Top 10 countries of origin of asylum seekers in the UK, 2002 – 2008

Table 47. Stages of education in UK schools

Table 48. Refugee population trends

Table 49. Asylum applications by country, 2006 – 2010

Table 50. Profile of refugee applicants by country of origin (top 10 countries of origin), 2009

Table 51. Socio/personal profiles of the beneficiaries of the SPRAR, 2009

Table 52. Legal status of the beneficiaries of the SPRAR, 2009

Table 53. Main stakeholders involved in the Terra d’Asilo project in Italy

Table 54. Direct counterparts and corresponding counterparts to the Terra d’Asilo stakeholders in Italy
Table 55. Inventory of best practices in the field of educational integration of refugee and asylum-seeking children........ 413
Table 56. Problem analysis................................................................. 422
Table 57. Context analysis................................................................. 422
Table 58. Stakeholders................................................................. 422